8. Projects:

- a. August has been a quiet month. We have been preparing for our Fall activities and doing some reorganizing. Our Large Print books are now out in the front room and our paperback romance novels are on spinner racks. Fantasy and Science Fiction books have been moved into the Somers Reading Room. We are in the process of creating an Adult Classics shelf and will be weeding out some old books this winter.
- b. We attended the student registration for MSSM on Friday and Saturday (Aug 19 & 20), signing up 28 new library cards. We were also one stop along MSSM's back to school scavenger hunt.
- c. We set the date for most of our Fall programs: The Linda M. Page Memorial Walk-A-Thon (Saturday, September 17), Spooky Story Hour (Friday, October 28) and our Christmas Story Hour (Thursday, December 22).
- d. September: We are planning a Banned Book Week table in the Library for the last week in September. Other special dates in September are International Dot Day on September 15 - a day to celebrate and encourage a child's creativity, helping them to Make Their Mark; and International Talk Like A Pirate Day on September 19.
- e. The Highway Department will be installing our Little Free Library in Rotary Park. We hope to have a formal "ribbon cutting" ceremony of sorts to announce its arrival.
