7. Volunteers:

a. Those who serve on our Board of Trustees, Friends group, and Focus committee.

b. Four LCS high school students.

c. Barbara Gallagher, Chair of the Board of Trustees, has been assisting Angel on Mondays since Lisa broke her ankle.

8. Projects:

a. Fund-raising continues.

b. Children's Easter program had 7 children, 4 adults and 3 Friends of the Library in attendance.

c. We continue to be used by adults working with children. Currently, there are at least 4 pairs who work in our library.

d. Job Corp students visit on Wednesdays.

e. Senior Excercising began Wednesday mornings in the History Room. The cost is $6/lesson and is taught by the yoga instructor Julie French. It has been well received!

f. We have received back 3 Winter Activity Sheets.

g. 2 people attended the Adult Coloring Night. This program will be put on hold. Lisa and Angel are still interested in starting it but it will wait until Lisa is back full time.

h. Winter Fun Day. Angel and Barb Gallagher worked the Library's arts and crafts table at the Winter Fund Day held at Limestone Community School on Saturday, March 12. About 15 children made a penguin thermometer.

I would like to thank Angel and Barb for all the work they have done this past two months. They have kept the Library running smoothly while I recover. Angel in particular has gone above and beyond. I am excited to be returning to work and look forward to being back full time.

Respectfully submitted,

Lisa Dale
